

Working as a solicitor in the UK

See also www.lawbritannia.co.uk/oslawyer.htm

- (1) www.sra.org.uk/rel
- (2) www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/qltt/apply/qltt-experience.page. Please note that the SRA is reviewing the Qualified Lawyer Transfer Scheme for 2011. This may involve a reduction in the experience requirements but an increase in the amount of testing (see www.sra.org.uk/sra/consultations/1454.article)
- (3) www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/qltt.page
- (4) www.lawsociety.org.uk/documents/downloads/Profethics_RFLs.pdf
- (5) See www.sra.org.uk/students/academic-stage.page for details of qualifying law degrees
Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL) is course leading to the Common Professional Examination (CPE) — a conversion course for those who have not studied a qualifying UK Law degree. See www.sra.org.uk/students/conversion-courses.page and www.lawcabs.ac.uk
- (6) Legal Practice Course (LPC) is a practical course to develop the skills needed as a practising solicitor in the UK. See www.sra.org.uk/lpc and www.lawcabs.ac.uk
- (7) www.sra.org.uk/students/training-contract.page and www.lawcareers.net

Working as a barrister in the UK

- (1) www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/about/ourcommittees/qualificationscommittee/applicationforms
- (2) www.lincolnsinn.org.uk www.innertemple.org.uk www.middletemple.org.uk www.graysinn.info
- (3) See for example www.bpplawschool.com/BarAptitudeTest.htm
- (4) See www.sra.org.uk/students/academic-stage.page for details of qualifying law degrees
Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL) is course leading to the Common Professional Examination (CPE) — a conversion course for those who have not studied a qualifying UK Law degree. See www.sra.org.uk/students/conversion-courses.page and www.lawcabs.ac.uk
- (5) Bar Professional Training Course (formerly the Bar Vocational Course, BVC)
See www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/Educationandtraining/aboutthebvc and www.barprofessionaltraining.org.uk
- (6) See www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/Educationandtraining/whatispupillage and www.pupillages.com