

CAROLINE MORRIS
PUBLICATIONS LIST

Books

Parliamentary Elections, Representation and the Law (Hart Publishing, Oxford, forthcoming 2011)

Reconstituting the Constitution (Springer Publishing, New York, forthcoming 2011) (Ed with Petra Butler and Jonathan Boston)

Getting a PhD in Law (Hart Publishing, Oxford, forthcoming 2011) (with Cian Murphy)

Book chapters

“Misbehaving Members of Parliament” in Petra Butler, Jonathan Boston and Caroline Morris (eds) Reconstituting the Constitution (Springer Publishing, New York, forthcoming 2011)

“Prospects for Direct Democracy in New Zealand” in Jau-Yuan Hwang (ed) Direct Democracy in Asia (Taiwan Foundation for Democracy, Taipei, 2006) 391-401

“Remember the Ladies: a feminist perspective on Bills of Rights” in David Carter and Matthew Palmer (eds) Roles and Perspectives in the Law (Victoria University Press, Wellington, 2002) 27-42

Articles

“Conceptualising Candidate Selection in the Courts: where to after Watt v Ahsan?” [2008] Autumn Public Law 415-429

“Evans v United Kingdom: Paradigms of Parenting” (2007) 70(6) Modern Law Review 992-1002

“A Dunne Deal? Politicians, the Media, and the Courts” (2005) 57(2) Political Science 55-64

“‘A Mean Hard Place’? Law Students Tell it As it is” (2005) 36(2) Victoria University of Wellington Law Review 197-228

“‘All Is Changed, Changed Utterly?’ — Or, The Causes And Consequences Of New Zealand's Adoption Of MMP” (2004) 32(3) Federal Law Review 451- 478 (with Andrew Geddis)

“Regulations Review in the New Zealand Parliament” (2004) 4 Macquarie Law Journal 7-31 (with Ryan Malone)

“Improving our democracy or a fraud on the community? A closer look at New Zealand’s Citizens Initiated Referenda Act 1993” (2004) 25(2) Statute Law Review 116-135

“On Becoming (and Remaining) a Member of Parliament” [2004] Spring Public Law 11-21

“Drugs, the Law, and Technology: Posing Some Problems in the Workplace” (2002) 20(1) NZ Universities Law Review 1-39

“Remember the Ladies: a feminist perspective on Bills of Rights” (2002) 33 & 34 Victoria University of Wellington Law Review 451-466

“Technology and the Legal Discourse of Fetal Autonomy” (1998) 8 UCLA Women’s Law Journal 47-97

“An Investigation into Gender Bias in the Employment Institutions” (1996) 21 NZ Journal of Industrial Relations 67-90

“The Governor-General, the reserve powers, Parliament and MMP: a new era” (1995) 25 Victoria University of Wellington Law Review 345-372

Minor articles

“Natural Justice and Political Parties” (2008) NZ Law Journal 399-400

“Major, Minor, and Third Parties in the 2005 election” (2005) November NZ Law Journal 377-379 (with Andrew Geddis)

“Developments in foetal status law” (2004) March NZ Law Journal 82-83

“Election 2002 – legal issues” (2002) September NZ Law Journal 332-334 (with Andrew Geddis)

“Citizens’ Referenda: time for review?” (2002) March NZ Law Journal 44-46

Reports and Submissions

Submission to the NZ House of Representatives Election Legislation Select Committee on the Electoral Referendum Bill 2010 (invited submission)

Submission to the House of Lords Select Committee on the Constitution Call for Evidence on Referendums in the UK’s Constitutional Experience (2009)

Submission to the NZ House of Representatives Justice and Electoral Law Select Committee on the Electoral (Administration) Amendment Bill 2009

“Lessons in Direct Democracy from New Zealand” (Centre for Policy Studies, London, August 2007) 1-8 (commissioned report)

Book reviews

Of J November In the Footsteps of Ethel Benjamin: New Zealand’s First Woman Lawyer (2010) 41(1) Victoria University of Wellington Law Review 85-88

Of B Watt UK Election Law as “Sofas and fizzy drinks: critiquing election law in the UK” (2007) 6(3) Election Law Journal 295-298

Of P Oliver The Constitution of Independence (2005) 36(3) Victoria University of Wellington Law Review 669-671

Of A Tomkins Our Republican Constitution as “Courts and Parliament” (2005) July NZ Law Journal 213-214

Of J Richardson Selves, Persons, Individuals: Philosophical Perspectives on Women and Legal Obligations (2005) Modern Law Review 501-503

Conference papers and presentations

“Regulating the conduct of Members of Parliament” presented at Reconstituting the Constitution, Centre for Public Law, Wellington, September 2010 (invited speaker)

“Search and seizure under the NZ Bill of Rights Act” to the Lower Hutt Association of Justices of the Peace, Lower Hutt, June 2006 (invited speaker)

“The experiences of Victoria law students” presented at Contemporary Perspectives on New Zealand Tertiary Education, HERDSA/UTDC, Wellington, August 2005 (invited speaker)

“The law student experience” presented at Higher Education in a Changing World, HERDSA, Sydney, July 2005

“What it feels like for a girl: being female at Victoria University of Wellington” presented to Legal Education Seminar Series, University of Adelaide, May 2005 (invited speaker)

“Justiciability” presented at The Dunne case, Centre for Public Law, Victoria University of Wellington, April 2005

“Practices and Powers of the Ombudsmen” presented at the Annual Meeting of Institutes of Technology CEOs, Wellington, September 2004 (invited speaker)

Workshop facilitator at Access to Information, Constitution Unit/UCL, London, May 2004

“Constitution and Government: principle and practice” to new MPs, NZ House of Representatives, Wellington, November 2002 and November 2005 (invited speaker)

“Primary and secondary law-making processes” to the Vietnamese National Academy of Public Administration, Wellington, August 2002 (invited speaker)

“Electoral questions” presented at Analysing and Understanding Crucial Developments in Public Law II, Institute for International Research, Wellington, March 2002

“The New Zealand Court Structure” to electoral officials from Mexico, Wellington, March 2002.